auckland.ac.nz

"The University provides an exciting and stimulating environment for its students. Currently over 6,000 international students have chosen to study at Auckland, testimony to both the University's comprehensive range of research-based study programmes and the recognition they are receiving internationally."

PROFESSOR STUART MCCUTCHEON
Vice-Chancellor
The University of Auckland

Established in 1883, the University of Auckland is New Zealand's highest-ranked university internationally for research and academic reputation. Situated in the heart of New Zealand's largest city, it is an international centre of learning and academic excellence.

The University of Auckland is New Zealand's world-ranked university. It is a QS Five Stars Plus institution, having achieved five stars in eight categories including Employability, Teaching and Research. It is also the only New Zealand university ranked in the top 100 in the QS World University Rankings 2015/16 and the top 200 in the Times Higher Education World University Rankings 2015/16. In 35 of the 38 subjects in which the University teaches, it is the highest-ranked in the country according to the QS World University Rankings by Subject 2015/16.

The University of Auckland has a strong international focus and is the only New Zealand member of Universitas 21, the Worldwide Universities Network (WUN), and the Association of Pacific Rim Universities – international consortia of research-led universities.

Membership of these groups is by invitation only and is limited to research-led institutions of international reputation across a broad range of disciplines.

A highly successful environment

The University's comprehensive range of research and coursework-based programmes are internationally recognised. Graduates of the University of Auckland occupy leading positions in business, law, medicine, politics, arts, engineering and other professions within New Zealand and overseas.

A truly global experience

The University provides an exciting and stimulating environment for more than 40,000 students. Currently over 6,000 international students from 110 different countries have chosen to study at the University of Auckland. "I think university would have been harder if I hadn't done the AFY programme. The foundation prepares you for a lot of stuff you do at university. I've learnt a lot since I've been here. Not just in school but also a lot about the social side of it, making friends, interacting with people, how to talk to your lecturers. I've experienced different cultures and I've become more confident."

Ravnit from Malaysia, AFY graduate, now studying a Bachelor of Food Science at the University of Auckland

"The education system in Vietnam is fairly different to New Zealand. Doing a foundation program helped me to understand those differences and adapt to the new environment smoothly. I was also very fortunate to gain work experience in Auckland. I started working part time in the school's library and once I graduated from university, I was offered a permanent job as Assistant Bursar at Taylors College."

Julia from Vietnam, AFY graduate, now studying a Bachelor of Commerce at the University of Auckland

"The teachers are really caring, they are always available to help you out and give you advice about life in New Zealand. They have a lot of experience in dealing with international students, which is very helpful as they are familiar with the most common issues we face. They really go out of their way to help you feel at home."

Lana from Vietnam, AFY graduate, now studying a Bachelor of Engineering at the University of Auckland
